Spring Inspiration

Jefferson Bethke and Tullian Tchividjian are young Christian leaders who help stir-up God's people to love and good works (Hebrews 10:24). These Good News quotes will stir you up:

“Don't be stingy with God's love, it doesn't run out.” (JB)

“Of 100 lost people, one might read the Bible, but the other 99 will read the Christian.” (JB)

“Jesus loves you, delights in you, saw your sin before He went to the cross, and He still went.” (JB)

“What God does for us, God does in us.” (TT)

“Our salvation does not depend on our behavior but on Jesus' behavior. He justifies, He sanctifies, He glorifies. Salvation is of the Lord.” (TT)

“Should we sin that grace may abound? No! When we sin does grace abound? Yes it does!” (TT)

“Do you want to be more intelligent or more loving? Which does God value more?” (TT)

2015 NATIONAL PRAYER by Dr. Jack Graham

Heavenly Father,

We come to You in the Name that is above every name—Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Our hearts cry out to you.

Knowing that you are a prayer-answering, faithful God—the One we trust in times like these—we ask that You renew our spirits, revive our churches, and heal our land.

We repent of our sins and ask for your grace and power to save us. Hear our cry, oh God, and pour out Your Spirit upon us that we may walk in obedience to Your Word.

We are desperate for Your tender mercies. We are broken and humbled before You.

Forgive us, and in the power of Your great love, lift us up to live in your righteousness.

We pray for our beloved nation. May we repent and return to you and be a light to the nations. And we pray for our leaders and ask that You give them wisdom and faith to follow You.

Preserve and protect us, for You are our refuge and only hope.

Deliver us from all fears except to fear You, and may we courageously stand in the Truth that sets us free.

We pray with expectant faith and grateful hearts.

In Jesus' name, our Savior.

Amen

Question? ? When was the last time you read the back page of the bulletin? It explains the Four-fold Gospel, the Doctrine of the C&MA. We have a blessed heritage, a rich Bible-based theology that we need to be reminded of often.

With the help of several talented and Spirit-filled writers, we are going to briefly look at "Sanctification", Christ, as our Sanctifier, as depicted by a laver, using the verses I Thessalonians 5:23 and 24. According to Webster, sanctification means: 1) to set apart to a sacred purpose; b) to purify, to free from sin; c) to make efficient as the means of holiness; d) to give moral or social sanction to. According to Smith's Bible Dictionary, sanctification means: to set apart; separation; devoted to; consecrated; be holy.

Maybe some of you have not heard of the word "Sanctification". You may ask how can a believer be sanctified? Note: this writer used the word—a believer. You must be born-again. As so aptly stated by Mrs. Mildred Eicher, "Holiness is a cleansing out of the carnal nature and a filling of the heart and life overflowing with the Holy Spirit. Holiness is heart conformity to the nature of God." And Rev. Charles Stanley is quoted that, "Sanctification is both a position and a process. It is God's higher purpose." A.W. Tozer writes, "One ploy of the enemy is to so affect a man's conscience that it no longer functions. The Holy Spirit wants to touch it and bring it alive. Conviction is necessary for true conversion. The beginning work of the Holy Spirit is to pierce the moral area of the human heart."

Many hymnals have several hymns and choruses that should reflect the desires/longings of our heart to surrender to the Holy Spirit's tug. Some examples are: "I Am His and He Is Mine"; "Moment by Moment"; "Let the Beauty of Jesus be Seen in Me"; "Himself"; "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go"; "Be Still My Soul"; "The Solid Rock" and "Complete in Thee". This writer is sure that you can come up with a song/chorus that is special to you.

Closing with another quote from Mrs. Eicher, "We are called to holiness because we are Christ's ambassador's to a lost and sinful world. We are to represent Jesus."

This is a very brief study on Sanctification. Background material for this information included:

With Mother's Day approaching we all tend to think about the role our mother plays in our lives. I have been blessed with a Mom and Dad that continually show unconditional love (trust me it has been tested...). Their love for me has made it possible to both love others and accept love. If human love can be this powerful then the perfect love of God can move mountains.

"The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." 1 Corinthians 1:18. This describes my feelings before answering God's call. I'm sure that my mom has been praying for my soul since infancy, but Jesus had his own timing. When the time came for my heart to be softened I turned to Mom. She encouraged Steve and I to attend church, introduced us to everyone, and included us in everything. There was no condemnation or "pushing religion". It became impossible to stay in the dark once we learned about Jesus.

"For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world be saved through Him." John 3:17. My mom kept her faith strong and unwavering so that when Jesus was ready He worked through her to save two souls instead of one. "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your household." Acts 16:31. Never stop praying for lost loved ones!

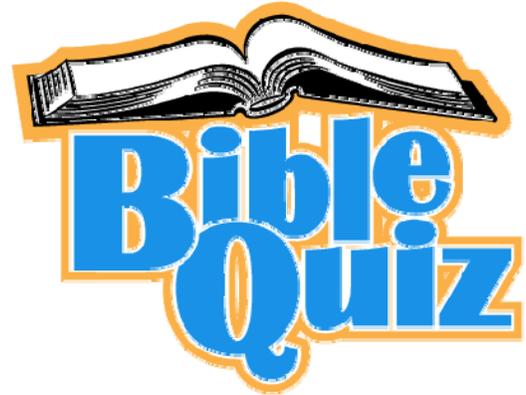

My Mom continues to be a strong influence on my faith. She's a partner in every outreach event, an example of how to love God's people, and does not boast about good works.

Thank you for all that you do. I love you!

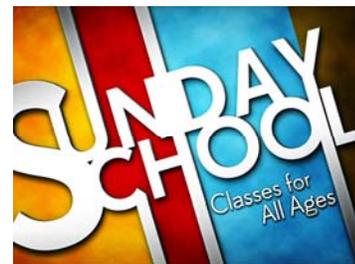

Happy Mother's Day!

Norwin's Bible Quiz teams ended their third year quizzing on April 11th with a final quiz meet and awards banquet. This year we had three teams quiz from Norwin; a Junior Team consisting of David and Hannah Hargraves and Meleah Beatty, a Senior A team including Benjamin and Emily Cox, and a Senior B team consisting of Mike Ewing, Christian Beatty, Charlie Blenko, and Luke Fetterhoff. The Senior B team ended the year in FIRST place in their division. Benjamin and Emily Cox and David Hargraves all qualified to move on to the District Finals competition in New Castle on April 24-25. The kids spent the year studying and memorizing the book of Acts. Next fall they will begin to study the books of Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians.

Thank you to leaders Becky and Joe Cox for helping these quizzers achieve success!
